TRAVEL + LEISURE

Mountains, Fjords & Glaciers

There is no finer place to celebrate summer than the fjords of Norway. Whether you're cruising the bright blue waters...walking on glaciers that carved the mind-boggling fjords...or exploring remote villages that cling to the shores, you will gain a wonderful sense of how climate and topography influence history, culture and daily life. Along the way, we feast on fish fresh from the North Sea with tart lingonberries for dessert. We wander lush wildflower meadows—and go for after-dinner strolls in the late-night sunlight. Of course, there are constant reminders of the Vikings, whose descendants are warm and supremely hospitable. Your visit includes stays in both Oslo and Bergen, cities that contain more forest than streetscape. From a 900-year-old rural church to the museum that houses the works of Edvard Munch, this week brings you in touch with an incredible array of Norwegian experiences.

DAY 1 »

Oslo

- Explore Oslo's historic center, gaining insights into Norway's rich cultural heritage
- Discover Viking maritime history aboard the iconic Polar Ship Fram

Norway's capital is spectacularly situated at the inland tip of a fjord that extends to the North Sea. Exploring on foot at eye level, you'll gain insight into the city's rich history as well as the modern-day projects such as "The Opera Quarter". Walk to the rooftop of the Opera House with your expert local guide leading the way. Together you'll make your way through the lively streetscapes that range from the medieval Akershus Castle to 17th-century Renaissance buildings to the brash contemporary architecture for which Scandinavia is so well known.

Norwegians are justifiably proud of their maritime history (did you know that Norway has the second longest coastline in the world?) and you'll experience that firsthand on a ferry ride to the Fram and Maritime museums. Here you'll see the iconic vessels up close and learn how Norwegians were leaders in polar exploration. You'll get a sense of those daring adventures when you step aboard the Polar Ship Fram, seeing first-hand the many ancient artifacts and fascinating exhibits all around you.

Head back outdoors and up above the city, to the Holmenkollen Ski Jump. Marvel at the panoramic views from the Olympic site. Then, raise a glass in a toast to the fjords below you as you say "vel bekomme", which means enjoy your meal in Norwegian.

The Flåm Railway

- Traverse Norway's stunning landscapes on the world-famous Flåm Railway
- Cruise through UNESCO-listed Nærøyfjord, marveling at pristine waters and traditional farms

In western Norway, the landscape takes on an awesome beauty with iridescent glaciers, deep fjords that slash into snowcapped mountains, roaring waterfalls, and secluded valleys that lie at the end of twisting paths.

After breakfast, depart Oslo by train on the Bergen Railway, where you'll pass by Hardangervidda National Park along the way. In Myrdal, you'll board the famous Flåm Railway, celebrated as one of the most spectacular train rides in the world. Cinematic views include snow-capped mountains, thundering waterfalls and pastoral green meadows.

Hop aboard a boat at the tip of Nærøyfjord, one of the narrowest fjords in Europe and a UNESCO World Heritage site. As you cruise its pristine waters, enjoy views of traditional farms, grazing goats scattered among the green valleys, and seals sunning on rocks. Continue across the Sognefjord, the largest in Norway. Late afternoon, arrive in the village of Luster, surrounded by scenic mountains and waterways.

Jostedal Glacier

- Kayak on a glacier-fed lake, approaching fantastical ice formations up close
- Experience an exclusive glacier walk with expert guides and specialized equipment

This morning, drive to the deepest reaches of the Jostedal Valley, a spectacular landscape created by glaciers from the last Ice Age. Seasonally, join our local guide by kayak or zodiac to explore the glacier-fed lake. The glacier calves into this body of water, tinted a vivid blue, so that you can get right up close to the fantastical shapes and shards of ice that float here.

After making your way across the lake, our highly trained glacier guides will outfit you with crampons and safety gear so that you can enjoy an 'only with Classic Journeys' walk on the tongue of the glacier. Like so many others, the glacier is receding at a historically rapid rate, but this river of ice is still a natural spectacle on an awesome scale. After a stimulating outdoor day, return to the hotel for some downtime and a relaxing dinner.

Following your nature walk, head to a local farm where sheep dot the rolling hills all around you. You'll be introduced to our friend and invited into their impressive greenhouse. Learn all about the flora and fauna of Norway, as well as their agricultural history during an engaging visit. Urnes / Bergen

- Explore the UNESCO-listed Urnes Stave Church, blending Viking and Christian architecture
- Sail through majestic Sognefjord, witnessing changing landscapes from mountains to rugged coast

From the village's docks, a small ferry transports you across the fjord for a walk up to Urnes Stave Church. Perched high above the water, the church—built in the early 12th Century—is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Built entirely of wood, it is a remarkable blend of Viking and Christian architecture and is the oldest structure of its kind still standing. Emerging from its richly carved interior to take in the commanding vistas all around, you'll get a clear sense of how little Norway's interior region has changed in nine centuries.

Continue your walk while breathing in the fresh mountain air and enjoying the jaw-dropping views over the mountains. Following lunch, board a catamaran to Bergen. Along the way, you'll sail out the majestic Sognefjord (Norway's longest fjord), past the villages and old trade centers along the way, seeing how the surroundings change from mountain and fjord landscape to the rugged coast. You can even look straight out to the North Sea at Sognesjøen as you cruise between islands.

On arrival in Bergen, head out from the heart of the city up to Mt. Fløyen on a funicular ride. Atop the mountain, admire the sunset and panoramic views over the city and out to sea. Invigorated by the mountain air, return to your perfectly-sited hotel on a leisurely walk into town.
